

Mary Maude "Grandma" Supernaw
Interviewed by: Bill Supernaw, Jr.
Interview Date: 1965
Transcribed by: Rise Supernaw Proctor and Billy Supernaw Proctor
Subject: Stomp Dance & Quapaw Dance

Stomp Dance & Quapaw Dance

Icky: Bill, ask her if Grandpa ever led.

Bill: Huh?

Icky: Ask her if Grandpa ever led, Stomp Dance.

Bill: Supernaw?

Icky: Yeah, no, no!

Bill: Did Tall Chief ever lead stomp dance?

Grandma: Uh huh, yeah.

Bill: He did.

Grandma: He did take a lead.

Grandma: All time, huh?

Grandma: Uh huh, yeah, he take a lead.

Bill: Did Grandpa

Grandma: And he sing for people too, he sing for old men and sing for Osages, Coon Dance too.

Bill: Coon Dance. Oh!

Grandma: Uh, huh. First time that I went to White Oak like we always, we, I told you when I was small.

Bill: Yeah!

Grandma: And he, he sing for Quapaw there, we go two by two, but they, sure didn't know, got all mixed up and turned around, but he, he made all right though. They call Quapaw Dance.